

Maryland Folk Musician's Retreat

June 1 -3 2018

Centreville, Maryland

Since 2007 Pat and Patrick Costello have been hosting Folk Retreats on Maryland's Eastern Shore. Open to all levels of skill, disciplines and styles, the Maryland Folk Musicians Retreat provides a warm and welcoming place to celebrate the joy of making music.

The Maryland Folk Musicians Retreat features workshops with skilled and compassionate instructors. There is ample time for jamming, socializing or just taking some time to relax in a beautiful setting away from the hustle and bustle of the everyday world.

The Retreat is held at the Riverview Retreat Center. A lovely setting with hotel-style accommodations, chef-prepared meals and plenty of space for workshops and jamming.

New This Year!

Camping and dormitory lodging are also available at affordable rates.

Whether you are just starting out or you have been playing for ages, the Maryland Folk Musicians Retreat is a fantastic opportunity to enhance your skills in a setting of joy and fellowship.

Workshops will include Banjo, Mandolin, Guitar, Fiddle, Mountain Dulcimer, Ukulele, Songwriting, Harmonica, Singing and More!
